The sailing up Salt river this year promises to be rather rough. The party who will be compelled to take the first boat should do it with the best grace possible. It would be hardly expected that they should sing "We are a Jolly Crew."

A rumor was set afloat Thursday that Hon. Emory Storrs would be tendered the attorney-generalship in Garfield's cabinet. Another supposi tion of the cabinet's composition was that Gen. Grant would either be given a secretaryship or the St. James mis

Every four years a lunatic turns up at Washington claiming to be presi dent and troubling the occupants of the White House with demands to be admitted. John Geary is the latest. He said the republicans had made his name Garfield, and he was there with 50,000 soldiers to take his seat.

In the Armory police court of Chicago, Friday morning, a denizen of low life named Lizzie Adams was arraigned for robbing a man. His name was Fisher. She recognized him court as her early lover, a graduate of Yale college and a resident of New Haven. They had been engaged years ago. The match was broken. She fell into shame and he in rags.

A number of visitors went to Governor's Island Thursday to pay their respects to Gen. Hancock. He received the visitors cordially, but the subject of the late election was not broached, as the general seemed assid nously to avoid any conversation in regard to it. Officers, sentries and other inhabitants of the island say that they have not seen the slightest evidence of disappointment cross the general's features since the election

Justice Smith said, on opening his court at Connorsville, Tenn. : "William Henry Smith is arraigned for as saulting his father." The magistrate had on the previous day knocked his father down with a club and it was himself that he was now arraigning. It is conceded by the hundreds who have visited the beautiful and romantic place known as MCALLISTER SPRINGS, that at no distant day it will be noted $384,000. The house has been doing most popular resort in the west. Unlike the inaccessible and unbealthy surroundings pertaining to the "Enreka Springs," of Arkansas, this nat ural "Eden" of Missouri is destined to be the "Saratoga" of the west. Those quired should be paid. The assets who have frequented its beautiful are nearly equal to the liabilities. groves on the banks of the "Blackwater," those who have partaken of its medicine waters, those who have plunged in the salt sea baths, medicated with the waters from the BLACK SULPHUR SPRING, will pay particular attention to the advantages now offered for a small but desirable and remunerative investment! The property having changed hands within the past year, is now in the possession of parties who appreciate its value, and who will do all in their power to make it the most POPULAR RESORT FOR THE PEOPLE in the west, and especially is it desirable for the people of Sedalia and vicinity, to have a place for recreation and enjoyment, without the expense usually attending, what are termed fashionable watering places. It is the object of those interested, to give every one of moderate means a chance to enjoy the benefits derived from the Springs, at a cost but little above what it would be to stay at home, for a few weeks or months during the heat of the sum-

Therefore, the following induces ment is offered to a limited number of applicants: The most desirable, beautitul and valuable portion, consisting of about forty acres has been laid of ing to warmer southerly with lower visited the place this season have nearly all expressed a desire to obtain one lot at least. Therefore, it is the determination of the undersigned to sell forty lots, ONLY of the most desirapurposes, for the nominal sum of twenty dollars each. Under no circumstances will more than two lots be deeded to one person, as the object in disposing of them is to get as many as possible interested in the improvements which will be made very extensively during the next year. Any person purchasing a lot TAKES NO CHANCES, but is sure of more than doubling his money within a year, if he wishes to dispose of it.
